We Need Your Help! Come And Volunteer With Us!

To us maintain our full schedule and continue to offer a broad range of programs, Pyramid Mountain Natural Historic Area volunteers - adults, students, and service organizations. No experience is required, just an interest in nature!

Pyramid Mountain NHA, operated by the Morris County Park Commission, is an historic area that includes three mountains and two stream valleys. The park entrance is located on Boonton Ave with land in Montville Township, Boonton Township, and Kinnelon Borough. It has over 1,500 acres of beautiful terrain and 20 miles of nature trails. Visitors are provided scenic views and several prominent geological formations. The Visitors Center is open Monday through Sunday, from 9am to 4:30pm.

Opportunities

_____ Weekend Greeter - Help with greeting visitors, phone calls, and providing information about the Center and its activities to visitors so naturalists are free to run programs.

_____ Special Events - Help with special events such as Monarch Fest, Earth Day, Maple Sugar Fest, etc. We will provide any training needed for the event.

_____ Hiking - Assist on hikes.

_____ Snowshoe Sunday helper - Sweep on hikes and help people try on snowshoes during the winter months.
